Hearth Sweaters

Why Hearth Sweaters?

Choosing our company means getting more than just a high-quality wool sweater—it means making a purchase that reflects your values. We use ethically sourced wool to ensure animal welfare and minimize environmental impact, while also partnering with Fair Trade Certified, a charity focused on ethically sourced clothing to give back to communities in need. Every piece you buy supports responsible production and contributes to a greater cause, so you can feel confident that your choice is both stylish and meaningful.

Materials

Good wool types stand out for their softness, durability, and comfort. Choosing high-quality wool not only feels better against your skin but also ensures your clothing lasts longer and performs well in different temperatures. Merino wool is exceptionally soft and breathable, making it comfortable to wear while naturally regulating body temperature in both warm and cold conditions. It's also moisture-wicking, odor-resistant, and durable, making it ideal for everyday wear and active use.

Cashmere Wool

Cashmere wool is incredibly soft and lightweight, offering luxurious comfort while providing excellent insulation in cold weather. It's also breathable and durable when properly cared for, making it a high-quality, long-lasting fabric choice.

Alpaca Wool

Alpaca wool is soft, lightweight, and exceptionally warm, thanks to its naturally insulating fibers. It's also hypoallergenic, moisture-wicking, and durable, making it a comfortable and long-lasting choice for everyday wear.

Products

Our sweaters are thoughtfully designed in rich, earthy tones that reflect the natural beauty of fall and winter landscapes. Inspired by deep browns, forest greens, and muted neutrals, each piece blends seamlessly with the season's surroundings. Combining comfort, style, and a connection to nature, our collection is made to keep you feeling cozy while looking effortlessly refined.
